General Local News.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 15, 1877.

Do not fail to read the new advertisement of Klein & Bro.

Mr. Dick Hawes, of Daviess county, has red clover six feet high.

Watermelons, muskmelons, apples and peaches until you can't rest.

New Orleans molasses at E. T. Williams, for 65 and 75 cents per gallon.

The taxable property of Owensboro is: Whites, $2,023,000; blacks, 19,993.

Goods at and below cost until September 1st, at L. P. Barnard's Beaver Dam.

The outside appearance of the court-house is greatly improved by fresh painting.

Mr. Will T. Cox has been quite sick for several days past, but is recovering now.

Mrs. A. L. Morton returned from a visit to relatives in Hardin county last week.

Owensboro can only boast of 97 dogs. We think Hartford can beat that.

The fair at Hardinsburg commences Tuesday, September 26, and continues four days.

Miss Carrie Rowe, of this place, is spending several days among her kindred in the country.

Mr. "Bud" Sharp, living in Bartlett's precinct, had a fine horse stolen from him a few nights ago.

Best prints from now until September 1st at five cents per yard, at L. P. Barnard's, Beaver Dam.

There is quite a quantity of last year's corn in the country yet, and selling at twenty-five cents per bushel.

W. Prior Haden, formerly a resident here, has accepted a position in the popular grocery store of J. F. Collins.

Mr. J. F. Rice, the inland mail carrier from this place to Owensboro, is quite sick at his residence in the latter city.

A select crowd of young ladies and gentlemen from this place spent a very pleasant day at the Sulphur Springs Sunday.

Mr. L. P. Foreman, of Owensboro, spent a day or two with his friends here this week. Jack is one of the salesmen in the 99-cent store.

Be very cautious how you take $30 bills on the Third National Bank of Buffalo. A dangerous counterfeit on that issue is in circulation.

Hartford has more groceries, we venture to say, than any town in the State of equal population, and they all do good business.

Everybody who desires to see a successful fair here this fall, are requested without fail to come to the courthouse next Saturday at one o'clock.

The old fashion way of "making up a load and walking" seems to be fast going out of date, judging from the number of new buggies our citizens have recently purchased.

Mrs. Helen Carson, of Owensboro, who is visiting relations in the country, in company with Mrs. Mary Woodward, made a visit to the Herald office last Friday evening.

Two loads of salt in nice new barrels, fresh cooperage, for sale at $1.65 per barrel at Beaver Dam, by L. P. Barnard. Special inducements to parties purchasing lots of 5 to 10 barrels.

We accidentally omitted to make mention last week of the return of our fellow citizen, W. C. Morton, who had just reached home from an extended tour through Texas. He reports it a very fine country indeed.

Hartford can boast of the "Youngest" barber out, in the person of Eliza Young, who is serving an apprenticeship in the shaving salon of Sam. Larkin. He shows beard pretty well for his experience.

We are informed through Mr. J. B. Dye that Mr. Henry Showers, a highly respectable citizen of Elizabethtown, shot himself through the left temple a few evenings ago, from which he died almost instantly.

In a practice game of base ball Saturday evening, two of the boys became "foul," and one of them made a "home strike" on the other. He didn't quite get away with him, but he cut off his wind for a while.

Hartford is fast becoming a huge meagerie and aviary. For some time past we have had in our midst a den of Lyons and a nest of Crows, and last week we added to the list a nice pet Baer. Come in and see our show.

One of the cleverest, largest-hearted men of our acquaintance is Mr. H. K. Wells, of Millwood, Grayson county, Kentucky. We return thanks to him for a box of nice, luscious peaches, sent as last week, and assure him that his remembrance of us in this instance is very greatly appreciated.

The spacious parlors in the residence of Hon. Sam. E. Hill, Senator elect, were on last Friday evening thrown open for the reception of the numerous friends who took an interest in his election, and who, on this occasion, met to congratulate him and enjoy themselves in our happy merry-making. All were welcomed in the warmest possible manner by the Senator and his accomplished and hospitable wife. This gathering of Democracy represented all the gallantry and beauty of Hartford and the county, and when the lively music floated through the halls, eight-winged feet kept time to the merry hearts in the merry dance. Everything went off as merry as a marriage bell, and when the "hiccups" of the night, "we took our leave of the Captain, we felt assured that one with so large a heart and comprehensive view of liberality and hospitality at home, would, on the floor of the Senate, be a tower of strength as the representative of a Democratic constituency in the interests of "justice to all men." This "happy gathering" will long be remembered by the young ladies and gentlemen of Hartford, and after the Captain has distinguished himself in the Senate, and an appreciative public has deemed his services necessary in the halls of Congress of his country, we will again meet to congratulate him on the success of merit and fidelity to the interests intrusted him by the people.

John Sam Newcomb is doubtless the champion owl killer of the country. He has slain more owls, bigger owls, other owls and younger ones than any other owl living or dead. He has killed them in the day, in the night, on Monday and on Sunday, in the winter and in the summer, and his last exploit was in shooting one Sunday night—off-hand at seventy yards in the dark with a rifle. Sam has exquisite sight, and on this occasion aimed only at its voice and made a centre shot.

We learn from a proclamation issued by L. P. Barnard, "King of Merchants," that the strike has reached Beaver Dam, and in order to allay the angry passions of the multitude, and restore peace and harmony to the people, he will sell his stock of goods now until September 1st, at and below cost. Read his proclamation, and you will see. Remember you only have fifteen more days in which to accept the terms of peace.

Money makes the paper go, as well as the mare, and we insist on your paying us what you owe, in order to keep the paper going. If you do not, it will have to stop as a natural consequence. If you want it to suspend, just fail to pay us what you owe us, or withhold your patronage and the object is accomplished. Do you want it to prosper and continue, then pay us what you owe, and give us your patronage liberally.

Mr. Barch B. Felix, of the Sulphur Springs neighborhood, left home last Friday evening to hunt his horse and has not returned home yet. Fears were entertained that he had been fully dealt with, or had happened to some serious accident, but we learn that he was seen in Owensboro last Saturday evening and it may be that he has concluded to hunt new quarters or to take a tramp.

L. J. Lyon is the most business like man in Hartford. In addition to running a first-class hotel, he has a splendid stock of groceries at his old stand, which are being sold cheap for cash, or exchanged for country produce of all kinds.

F. E. Kinsley is the gentlemanly salesman who will wait on the customers of the grocery, and he always gives satisfaction to those who patronize that establishment.

Bud Dickerson, an unbleached American citizen, was up last Friday before Judge Cooper of Beaver Dam, charged with the safe burglary at that place, a few days ago. The Commonwealth failed to make her case. He was again arrested under charge of carrying concealed, a deadly weapon, and was tried at the courthouse Saturday, and was again acquitted. He was defended by Geo. C. Wedding.

We have but little idea what the article is, as we never saw anything exactly like it before. It is a little elastic contrivance, with nice brass buckles for fastenings, and resembles sleeves-holders very much. We found it last Saturday morning, and all the owner will have to do to get it will be to come up and wear it off. No charge will be made for this notice.

The Ohio County Sulphur Springs are beginning to be quite a place of summer resort. In addition to the large number of guests already there, Mr. James Parrish, of the Owensboro Examiner, and "Bud" Brotherton, of Owensboro, passed through town Sunday evening, bound for the Springs, where they expect to remain for several days.

Miss Nettie Miller, Miss Eliza Ford, Miss Anna Lewis, Mrs. J. W. Ford and Mrs. E. T. Williams were Hartford's representatives at the Baptist Association at Greenville last week. They report a very pleasant session, and speak in the highest praise of the manner in which they were entertained by the Greenville citizens.

D. A. Goodman has opened out the "Morning Star Saloon" at Henry Williams' old stand. He keeps a fine assortment of pure liquors of all kinds, Daviess county whiskey from one to nine years old. He solicits the patronage of his friends and former customers. Is prepared to furnish Oysters, Sardines, Bologna Sausage, Herrings, dried beef, &c. Come one, come all, if you want value received, give me a call.

The Ohio County Convention of the I. O. of G. T. will meet at Hamilton School House, on Friday and Saturday August 24th and 25th, 1877. The lodges of Ohio county will take notice and govern themselves accordingly. State lodges are also invited to send representatives. Convention meets at 10 o'clock. A. M. Public speaking 7 o'clock P. M. Friday and Saturday nights. Arrangements will be made to insure the comfort of all.

By order of the Committee on Arrangements. Wm. Hamilton, Sec., L. D.

I have recently secured a first-class miller, and am now prepared better than ever to do good work on short notice. Patronage solicited and satisfaction guaranteed at the Hartford Water Mills. Bring on your grain. Wm. Stuel.

Our citizens continue to show signs of enterprise, and building throughout the town continues.

Go to W. L. Rowe's and buy you a good Melon cheap.

Pacific Lumber at 10 cents a yard, at Beaver Dam, by L. P. Barnard.

WANTED—To exchange a good Sewing Machine for hay. J. S. Vautour.

A nice lot of wool jeans, bought before the advance, which I will sell very low. Beaver Dam, L. P. Barnard.

A large black wolf was killed near Port Oliver, in Barren County a few days ago. This is the first wolf we have heard of in Kentucky, for a long time, except traveling with a menagerie.

Mr. Walker Byers and Mrs. Henderson Byers, of Grayson county, honored us with a visit last Saturday. Mr. Byers is one of the prominent pedagogues of Grayson and will teach near Caneyville this fall.

Are you worried with headache, tooth ache, neuralgia, rheumatism or any pains or aches, do not fail to go to Z. W. Griffin's Drug Store and get a bottle of Crooke's "Never Fail," only 25 cts. and it "never fails" to cure.

This is an apology for whisky drinking! It is a medicine that cannot be used to intoxicate; it produces a tonic effect, as well as acts as a cathartic. In fact, Simmons' Liver Regulator is pronounced an unexceptionable medicine.

Mr. W. C. Morton, a groceryman of considerable experience, has bought out the grocery stock of W. C. Chapman, in the brick store-house under the Herald office, and will, next week, open out a splendid stock of new fresh groceries.

Having sold my stock of Groceries and rented my house to W. C. Morton, I am now selling my Shoes and Boots at cost and below cost. Now is the time to lay in your winter supply very low.

W. C. Chapman.

If you are unfortunate enough to get burned, scalded or cut yourself severely, do not delay, but go at once to Z. Wayne Griffin and procure a bottle of Crooke's Electric Oil, which will give you speedy relief and an early cure. Only 25 cents a bottle.

Mr. Henry Small has completed the addition to his Trade Palace, and now has one of the most commodious store-rooms in Hartford, and he is filling it to overflowing with a splendid assortment of goods, which he offers for sale at prices to defy competition.

Mr. L. J. Lyon, proprietor Lyon House, has secured the services of Mr. Louis C. Dillman at the desk in the office of that popular hotel. Mr. Dillman is a polite and accommodating gentleman, well acquainted, and takes pleasure in making guests feel perfectly at home.

Elizabethtown News: The Hartford Herald, (one of the best county papers in the State,) is publishing a series of very entertaining articles from the pen of H. D. Taylor, entitled "Fragments of the Early History of Ohio County." We have read them with much interest.

We received a communication yesterday evening written at Buford, on the 9th, being only five days coming the wonderful distance of nine miles. Although it traveled with terrific speed, it did not reach here in time for this week's paper, and will have to go over to next week.

Next Sunday is Rev. W. W. Cook's regular and last appointment, for this place. Having an appointment at Pleasant Hill church, for the same day at 10 o'clock A. M., therefore will not be able to fill his morning appointment for this place, but will fill his evening appointment.

Do not suffer any longer from old sores, teeth, ring worm, scald head, chaps, old skin diseases and cutaneous eruptions, but go at once and procure of Z. Wayne Griffin a bottle of Crooke's Electric Oil and cure yourself. It will cure these ills in man or beast. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Mr. R. P. Brown and wife of Cool Springs, called to see us last Thursday. They are warm friends of the Herald, and say they expect to take it as long as they live and it is published. If only one half of the men of the county would do likewise, the Herald would be on a firm foundation.

If you want Ohio county to be up with her sister counties over the State, and have a splendid Agricultural and Stock Fair here this fall, come to the courthouse next Saturday at one o'clock P. M., and help inaugurate the movement. Come, all of you, and let's arrange for the live and best fair ever held in the Green River country.

The sermonistic hour of the sabbathal service is trying just now or mental organizations simultaneously inclined. With the thermometer in the nineties and a sermon of an hour and a quarter long, the preacher who gets through his sermon without a more accompaniment may congratulate himself on being a very lucky, but badly mistaken, gentleman in his calling.—Glasgow Times.

He solicits the patronage of his friends and former customers. Is prepared to furnish Oysters, Sardines, Bologna Sausage, Herrings, dried beef, &c. Our citizens continue to show signs of enterprise, and building throughout the town continues.

Railroad Matters.

Mr. Dan. F. Whitcomb, the manager of the Owensboro and Nashville railroad, and Mr. J. H. Gardner, connected with the Cincinnati, Rockport and Southwestern road, are in the city. Mr. Whitcomb last week purchased a passenger coach and yesterday eleven cars for his road. There is a movement on foot which, if perfected, will make the Owensboro and Nashville road one of the most important in the State. It is contemplated to connect Owensboro with Vincennes, Ind., by way of the Cincinnati, Rockport and Southwestern road. This road is completed to Jasper, which is already connected with Rockport. The distance from Rockport is only ten miles, and it is proposed to fill the gap by a connecting link of the Owensboro and Nashville road, thus giving a direct line from Nashville to Vincennes, with connections to all points East. Mr. Whitcomb reports his road in fine condition and doing a good business.—(Courier-Journal, August 10.)

Daviess County Fair.

We have received the premium list of the Daviess County Fair Company. Their Fair will be held at their grounds, near Owensboro, commencing Wednesday, October 10th, 1877, and continuing three days. The premiums seem to be quite liberal. They have arranged for a continuous exhibition during the three days of the Fair of Horses within the Amphitheater—of Cattle, Sheep, Hogs and Mules in a Paddock outside of the Amphitheater on the grounds—and of Agricultural Products, Mechanical and Agricultural Implements in Floral Hall. For particulars, address, J. H. McHenry, Secretary.

"The Cash-Knife Cuts Deep."

This is precisely the way in which Edwards & Foster look at things, and have concluded to do business in a more businesslike manner. Since adopting this motto, it is really astonishing to see the great rush daily to their business house; and the immense quantity of goods they are selling is a clear proof that the cash-knife does cut deep. Edwards & Foster are both first-class business men, and any goods purchased of them will be guaranteed to be of the best and purest quality. With a small amount of money you can get lots of goods, and it is decidedly to your advantage to buy of them.

The Paducah and Elizabethtown R. R.

This road was formerly, and up to the time that Gen. Minty was placed in charge, known as the Elizabethtown and Paducah R. R. Now it is the P. and E. (Paducah and Economy) R. R. No strike has yet been organized by the employees, and none is apprehended. The Southern line has transported within the past few weeks for the P. and E. R. R. 500 tons of new steel rails.

Hymenial.

Mr. Elias Small of this town, was married to Miss Luc Small, daughter of Mr. Henry Small, at the residence of the bride's father, 282 Fifth Street, Louisville, Ky., on Wednesday, August 1st, 1877, at 8 o'clock, P. M. The Reverend Dr. Kleeburg of the Jewish church, officiated, and in a very impressive manner, pronounced the union, husband and wife. A large number of friends and relatives were in attendance. The happy pair left for Put-in-Bay and other favorite resorts, and will return some time about the 1st of September.

Corn Extraordinary.

We have at our office a stalk of corn grown by Alfred Morrison, of color, on the farm of Messrs. Walker & Hubbard, below town, known as the "Crown field." The stalk is nine feet high, or one hundred and eight inches. It is fifty-two days old, having been planted on the 23rd day of June, last; its average growth being more than two inches per day. We challenge the State to beat this corn growing extraordinary.

Thrown from his Horse.

On last Friday Mr. Harry P. Taylor, of this place, was thrown from his horse and so severely stunned as to render him insensible and speechless for a time. He was carried in from the street by some kind-hearted young ladies, and after a time was restored to consciousness, and is now apparently as well as ever.

A Brain New Store.

Messrs. Baer Brothers & Co. have rented the store house formerly occupied by J. W. Lewis, and are opening out a nice and large stock of dry goods of every description. Their prices seem to be very reasonable, and they have the appearance of genteel, affable young men. Read their advertisement in this issue, and give them a trial.

All persons indebted to me will greatly oblige by calling and settling their accounts. I have to pay for my goods and cannot keep a fine line unless you pay me. W. H. MURRELL.

Pay Me What You Owe Me.

All persons indebted to me are hereby notified that if they do not settle at once they will find their notes and accounts in the hands of Sam P. Taylor, deputy sheriff, for collection. THOMAS STEVENS, Beaver Dam.

The tax-payers of Ohio county are hereby notified that the taxes for the year 1877 are now due, and have been since the first day of June. SAVE YOUR EYES.

And Eye Glasses are the best for failing sight. Cut and polished from the "Real Stone" they are perfectly transparent (will cut glass like a diamond). Being harder than the eye itself, they receive a finer polish and always retain it. One pair carefully suited to your eyes will last as long as five pairs of the best glass, besides preserving the sight almost unimpaired all your life. By our new system for testing the sight, we are enabled to suit any eye accurately, and to fit the best lenses in all frames. We repair Spectacles and Eye Glasses, and insert and refit the best lenses in all frames. Our Bi-Focal Spectacles are for old people who require spectacles in one eye as well as in the other. Our new illustrated Price List which shows how to order. C. P. BARNES & BRO., Opticians.
